A BILLY SAYING.

"It is a common but silly opinion prevailing among a certain class of people that the worse
a remedy tastes, smells or hurts, the more efficacious it is." So says a well-known English physician. He further adds: "For example, let us consider cod liver oil. As it is extracted from the fish this oil is so offensive to the taste and smell, that almost everybody abhors it, and many cannot use it at all, no matter how badly they need it. Yet cod liver oil is one of the most valuable drugs in the world, and it is the greatest pity that we have not thus far been able to free it from those peculiarities which so seriously interfere with its usefulness." This was written years ago the work of civilizing and redeeming it however has since been triumphantly accomplished; and as a leading ingredient in the remedy called

VAMPOLE'S PREPARATION

the oil retains all its wonderful curative properties with no bad smell or taste whatever. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Symp of Hypophosphites and Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry, creating a medicine of unequalled power for the diseases most prevalent and fatal among men, women and children. There is no other remedy to compare with it. It increases the digestive power of the stomach and in Blood Impurities, Weakness, Loss of Flesh, Throat and Lung Troubles, Nervous Dyspepsia, Scrofulous Affections, Thinness and Slow Development in the young, it gives quick and certain relief and cure. DR. G. C. Shannon, of Canada, says: "I shall continue its use with I am sure, great advantage to my patients and satisfaction to myself." Has all the virtues of cod liver oil; none of its faults. You may trust it fully; it cannot disappoint or fail. One bottle convinces. Sold by all chemists.GREEN ISLAND CEMENT COMPANY,

BUSINESS IN BANGKOK.

THE RICE TRADE.

The arrival of paddy at the new mills in Bangkok during the year 1905 realized expectations, but, although the export returns are not published yet, most estimates put the figures for 1905 somewhat below those of the preceding year, remarks the Bangkok Times.
The trade cannot be said to have been very profitable notwithstanding that a good demand for Siam white rice existed in the Straits during the greater part of the year, and that there was also a more than average export of white rice, rough rice and broken rice to Europe and America. To account for the unsatisfactory state of the trade it is only necessary to point to the large and increasing number of mills at work in Bangkok, each competing for a share of the daily supply. The majority of the mills are worked by Chinese firms and so keen has been their competition that the paddy market was generally kept up to such a high level as admit of little or no margin of profit.There are about 35 rice mills in Bangkok, of some size, but taking all sizes in and about the town they number over 50. Some of the Chinese owners complain that they have made no profits at all during the past year.The quantity of rice exported for the first nine months of last year amounted to about 59,000 tons, and therefore the amount for the whole year may be roughly estimated at some 705,000 tons, as compared with some 530,000 tons in 1904.As regards the present season, prospects are so far very promising. There has been a most ideal harvest season and crops are good everywhere. Owing to the cultivators and middle men having got accustomed to the high prices current all last year, business has not, however, opened so briskly as one would expect it to do in a season of heavy crops.The bulk of our exports goes to Hongkong and Singapore as formerly. A new market has been found in South Africa where there is now a large population of Chinese, but the shipping traders do not furnish details of shipments thence and beside large quantities of Siam rice were settled direct with firms in Singapore or Hongkong.But though the present season is so promising Siam has no reason to be entirely satisfied with her position in the rice trade. Compared with Burma this country is a poor second, and a poorer second than it should hope to be among the sources of the world's rice supply.
The Burma export last year was 2,141,800 tons (to 4th Dec.) and in 1904, 2,340,000 tons (to 31st Dec.). Some Siam rice is second to none, but something could be done to improve the quality generally. To increase the supply as it ought to be increased in a country of such great area, irrigation must be pressed forward;
nothing else will meet the case, though doubtless there are many improvements that ought to be made in the methods of cultivation.

THE CHINESE NAVY.

PROPOSED NAVAL TRAINING SCHOOL
AT SHANGHAI.As a preliminary step towards the reorganization of the Chinese navy, says a correspondent in the Chefoo Daily News, their Excellencies Yuan Shih-kai and Chou Fu have sent in a joint memorial asking for the establishment of a naval training school at Shanghai to be under the management of vice-admiral Shi Chen-ping. The camp is to be instructed by some experienced English and Japanese naval officers, who will be specially engaged for the service, and the annual expenditure will be defrayed by the provincial treasuries at Tientsin and Nanking jointly. Instructions have been issued by their Excellencies Yuan and Chou to Admiral Shi, directing him to join with Mr. Taylor, naval secretary, in drawing up the necessary regulations.

MANILA'S HEALTH

HIGH MORTALITY AMONG INFANTS.

Hongkong still maintains its pre-eminence
as one of the healthiest places in the Far East.
With an average of slightly over 17 deaths per thousand Hongkong is vastly superior to Manila which has a death rate of 45.10 per thousand. According to the last monthly report of the Manila bureau of health there were 822 deaths recorded during the month; of which 452 were males and 370 females; giving an annual birth rate of 45.10 per thousand. There were 904 deaths in the city of Manila during the month, or an average of 39 deaths per day. After deducting 54 deaths among transients, there remain 850 deaths among residents, which would give an annual average of 45.51 per thousand. This rate is lower than the annual rate of the preceding month of September, and of October, 1904, which were 56.06 and 51.55, respectively. The infant mortality, especially among children included in the groups of "under 30 days" and "between 30 days and 1 year," reached 408, or 62 more than during the preceding month, yet it was much lower than that of October, 1904, when it reached 642, or 58.75 percent of the total deaths occurring during said month. During the month 31 cases of cholera with 29 deaths occurred in the city, and 358 cases and 249 deaths in the provinces.
Several cases of small-pox were also reported.

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY.

This is the result of research and experiment, when Hinton, 1905, spent, in research, the scientific method of life and health of man. A discovery indeed made great strides during the past century, and among the by no means least important discoveries in medicine comes that of Tapiocha, particular of which will be found in another column. This preparation is a scientific and of the most genuine and reliable Patent Medicine ever introduced, and has, we understand, been used in the Continental Hospitals for "Typhoid, Cholera, Dysentery, Malaria, and other febrile diseases,"
the celebrated German and French physicians are now using it, and it is being adopted and used by the military and naval authorities. It is a worthy recommendation of those who have used it, a remedy we think there is no doubt. From the above it will be seen that the Tapiocha is a remedy of these diseases has (like the famous pal-

HONGKONG, TUESDAY, JANUARY 30, 1906.

STRAITS CURRENCY REFORMED.

Although barely two years have elapsed since the Commission, presided over by Sir David Harbord, to inquire into the question of the Straits currency with the view to the adoption of a gold standard for the Settlements and the Federated Malay States, presented its report, the last stage in the conversion of the currency, as proposed by that Commission, was attained yesterday, when the announcement was officially made by His Excellency Sir John Anderson that the Straits Government had decided to fix the ratio of the Straits dollar to gold at two shillings and fourpence. Step by step, the various recommendations of the elaborate report framed by the Commission have been carried into effect. The last but one was the demonetization of the British and Mexican dollars in the Straits, when a sufficiency of the new coin had been imported for the purposes of trade within the Colony and also in the hinterland of Malaya. More than a year has passed since the British dollars, as well as the Mexican, which at one time did service as current coins in the southern Colony, were thrown out by the Government to make room for the new token which was designed to take their place in the scheme of currency reform adopted for the Straits. Between that time and now, the course of silver has been, with short exceptional periods, steadily on the rise. There were many causes contributing to this enhancement of the white metal, which at one time was so little valued that predictions were rife that it would yet be quoted at 1/6. And there were not wanting prophets who were foolish enough to hazard the opinion that even a lower rate than an eighteen-penny dollar would rule in the future. But, as a London writer on finance recently declared, silver has been peculiar for its perversity and it is always the improbable that happens with that eccentric metal. We have said there have been many causes contributing to the recent appreciation in the value of silver. These causes may be briefly summarised in the words of a London financier who wrote: "In the first place, India, where silver was disestablished years ago, continues to import nearly as much of the metal as before the closing of the mints. It may be objected that this demand is only in part for money purposes, and this is true; but then its use for ornament is still based on the persistent belief of the natives that silver is a money metal. In the second place, the Far Eastern war has led to a large demand for Manchuria, which, since the conclusion of peace, has extended to Korea. Finally, there is China, which has started coining silver in place of bronze for its teeming millions." The belief also exists that no important upward movement in the price of silver is likely to occur for a considerable time owing to the fact that Mexico has changed its monetary policy, has closed its mints to the free coinage of silver, and "has fixed the exchange at about 24 pence which is equal to a silver price of 29 pence." That is 3/8 pence below the rate yesterday when the Government of the Straits Settlements resolved to fix its own standard of value. In now fixing the ratio, the Government has followed the example set by India. After sufficient Straits dollars had been coined and put into circulation within the territory of the Colonial Government, to meet the requirements of business in the Colony and the adjoining States, it was contemplated the coinage of dollars should cease, according to Sir David Harbord's recommendation, until the exchange value of the dollar "had reached whatever value in relation to the sovereign might be decided on by the Government as the value of the Straits dollar." The millennium has at last been reached in the Straits. When the Commission presented its report it may be remembered that the demand rate was 1s. 8d. to the dollar. In commenting upon the necessary delay that would have to follow in the gradual process of conversion, we expressed the opinion that a fairly high value would eventually be fixed so as to reduce to a minimum the risk of the silver value of the new coin at any time becoming greater than its nominal value, as happened with the Philippines currency. In the latter case an emergency Bill had to be introduced quite recently in order to prevent the American Conant dollar going into the melting-pot or finding its way in large quantities out of the country, to the serious loss of the treasury and the hindrance of local trade. In treating of the future of silver several factors have, of course, to be considered. Among them is the possibility that higher prices will lead to the re-opening of the low-grade mines, which could not be profitably worked when their product commanded depressed figures, and it is doubtless true that the present movement has given a stimulus to silver mining in the United States, Mexico and other countries. It will, however, be some time before much effect is produced upon the aggregate output, as the re-opening of disused mines or the development of new silver properties is necessarily a slow process. It was believed at one time that a two-shilling rate for Singapore would have been a convenient figure at which to fix the ratio. Besides, at the exchange rate of the day then, this was thought to be a sufficiently safe rate to establish. Better counsels appear to have prevailed with the Straits Government, who chose rather to adopt a Fabian policy than rush precipitately into a hazardous scheme, with the uncertainty of what course silver would take within the next few months. By fixing the dollar at 2s. 4d. there is provision which, it may be taken for granted, is considered ample margin for the Government to adopt as the measure of risk which it is proper to assume. A fortnight ago, Sir John Anderson, himself said there was nobody who could have the boldness to say what the price of silver would be six months hence. It is, however, safe to assume that in fixing the rate now the Straits Government does not consider it probable that any much higher rate will be seen in the value of the once depreciated white metal. Rather the reverse may be expected. Should silver fall much below its present value of 30d. per ounce, the Straits Government will be in the comfortable position of security to which it had endeavoured to attain by the cautious policy which dictated its action in biding its time so that the ratio could be fixed at leisure. Sir John Anderson the other day gave little reason to believe that the Government had apparently settled its mind as to the establishment of the price of the token coin. We cannot refrain from the conviction that, closely as the secret must have unquestionably been guarded, there is a faint possibility that through some underground channel the information as to the intentions of the Government leaked out, to the advantage of those whom the Governor of the Straits Settlements characterised, on the 12th inst., as speculators, who chanced the possibility of having their fingers burned over a transaction the result of which the Government, itself was not then in a position to forecast. The Governor's warning had the effect on the following day of reducing the premium rate on a bill, say, from Hongkong to the Straits, from 15 to 10 per cent. That reduction was not to last long, however. The so-called "speculators" who were not speculators in the true sense of the word, but men controlling information most closely guarded, appear to have played a game with loaded dice. Exchange almost immediately rose again to 14 per cent, to be followed the next day by an other rise to 15 per cent, at which the rate has remained steady ever since. The Singapore ratio of 2s. 4d. with our Hongkong dollar at 2s. 0 5/16d., gives just about that difference, with the margin of commission to the exchange banks, which the so-called dangerous "speculators" had fixed as the arbitrary rate according to their best knowledge. These "speculators," however, were not actually speculating, because the banks positively refused to sell any bills on London. Hongkong has agitated for fixity of exchange, and the history of that agitation is too fresh in the minds of our readers to need recapitulation at this stage. We are now the only British colony dependent on silver for our currency, with all the uncertainties which the ups and downs of that metal bring in their train. The argument that our currency is wedded to that of China renders, in the opinion of the conservatives, our divergence from the system prevailing throughout the Empire inadvisable and impracticable. Since, however, the Mackay Treaty provides for a reform in the perverse currency of the Middle Kingdom, and the field for the circulation of the white metal as the standard coin is becoming more and more restricted, it behoves our authorities to press the question home, to the officials at Peking, in order to convince them of the desirability of the change being effected as early a date as possible, since sixty removes all the dangerous element of speculation and places the trade and the industries of this Colony, as well as those of China—whose territory is only barely exploited on a basis that would secure for them all the advantages of stability with its consequent enhanced prospects of development and prosperity.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

THE Supreme Court opened this morning after the Chinese New Year vacation.

LEAVE of absence on private affairs to England has been granted to Captain R. M. G. Tulloch, 2nd Royal West Kent Regiment, from 7th March to 6th January, 1907.

OWING to the death of H. M. the King of Denmark, His Excellency the Governor regrets to have to postpone his dance on Thursday, February 1st, until further notice.

YESTERDAY was the fiftieth anniversary of the institution of that much-coveted medal the Victoria Cross. At the present day there are 214 surviving holders of this decoration, of which Earl Roberts possesses two—his own won in the Indian Mutiny, and that of his son, Lieut. Roberts conferred posthumously, and won in South Africa.

Mr. Uchida, Japanese Minister at Peking, is seeking redress from the Chinese Government for the murder of Mr. Yasunaga, a Japanese interpreter, by Chinese soldiers on November 12th, 1904, in Manchuria. It is expected that the matter will be settled in a few days with the dismissal of the Chinese Commander concerned, the execution of the murderer, and the payment of ¥30,000 to the bereaved family.

CONSTABLE Shepperd this morning placed fourteen chair coolies before Mr. C. A. D. Melbourne at the Magistracy, to answer to the charges of persistent soliciting of fares, and disorderly conduct outside St. Joseph's Church, on Sunday, when the congregation was dispersing after mass. The defendants all admitted that they had been warned before, and were fined $1 each chair, i.e., 50 cents each coolie.

CONTINUING their scheme of catering for all classes in the community, the proprietors of the King Edward Hotel will open, on the 1st of February, their new public bar, where all and sundry may congregate. The bar is situated in what was the billiard room of the old building, and as most people know it is a large spacious room, in which a couple of hundred could be comfortably accommodated. It should become a popular rendezvous for all classes in the near future, beginning two days hence.

At the Magistracy this morning, Constable Berrie charged the master of the steam-launch Sun Kwong On with breach of the harbour rules, by exhibiting so light on his launch while under way in the harbour, last night. Defendant put up the usual plea of "the light went out," but that did not save him from a fine of $15 and a caution. Two cargo-boat masters were then charged with making fast to the s.s. Fat Shan, while the latter vessel was under way in the harbour on arrival, without the permission of the captain or officers. Fines of $15 were inflicted in each case, with the usual alternatives.

THE attempt made by the Philippine authorities to introduce trout-spawn in the waters of the islands has ended in failure. The Shiga Prefectural authorities shipped 500,000 trout-spawn to Manila on board the Ohio from Kobe, in response to an application from the Philippine authorities. The consignment, under the care of Mr. Higashimori, connected with the Tokyo Aquatic Experimental Station, arrived safely, but a message from that gentleman to the Shiga authorities states that on being placed in the incubators the trout-spawn died. The cause is attributed to the high temperature of the water and the poisonous minerals contained therein.

A SPECIAL to the New York Sun from Brussels says: According to the Rev. de Bruges, the report that King Leopold has married morganatically can be no longer doubted. The paper says the ceremony was performed a year ago in the private chapel of the chateau at Laeken, in the presence of the King's aides, by the court chaplain, acting with the authority of the Archbishop of Mechlin. The bride was a widow by the name of Vaughan, née Lacroix. She is the daughter of the caretaker at Louvain, and niece of M. Langendoick, a Socialist member of the Chamber of Deputies. The King has created her a Baroness, and she now lives at his estate at Cap Verat, near Nice, where she recently bore a son.

WHEN the s.s. Taiyuan was last in Hongkong we mentioned that there were some Australian mares on board consigned to the Yokohama Jockey Club. These animals were first to be raced and when their racing career had terminated they were to be turned over to the Government for stud purposes. From the reprint given below these horses appeared to have been satisfactory to the Japanese—Twenty-nine Australian griffins out of 30 arrived yesterday by s.s. Taiyuan in very good condition which reflects great credit on Mr. Tunton who brought them across. One of the griffins (No. 24), however, died on the voyage. They are a very superior lot of animals, in fact one of the best shipments to Japan. Subscribers are highly satisfied with them, and with such a good lot of equines we will, no doubt, witness good sport at the next spring meeting.

THE WEATHER.

The following report is from Mr. F. G. Figg, First Assistant of the Hongkong Observatory:—
On the 30th at 12.5 p. The barometer has risen over the E. coast of China, and fallen over the North and South coasts.
Pressure is highest over the Yellow Sea, and relatively low over the S. coast of China.
Strong monsoon is indicated in the Formosa Channel and along the Northern shores of the China Sea.
Forecast—strong E. breeze; showers.

TURF TOPICS.

30th January.
Very dirty weather was experienced at the Race Course this morning. The ground was in a swampy condition yesterday, and after the heavy downpour last night, the track was a perfect sheet of water.

The galloping was done in showers of rain, the ponies splashing through the pools.

All the trotting was performed on the inside track. Altogether it was a very disagreeable day on which to watch the training exercises.

EARLY BIRD.

A bitter morning. The worst that sportsmen have spent on the paddock this training season. It was very cold, and a fierce and strong wind swept the course.

Mr. N. E. Moller, whom we mentioned in our last issue as expected here by the German mail, attended at the course this morning and had several mounts.

The times were as follows:—

Cardas, last mile and a half, 3.35, last half-mile, 1.6, last quarter 3/4.

Kamloops, one mile and three-quarters mile, 4.16, last quarter 32. This gallop compares favourably with that of Oursine Rose yesterday, considering the bad state of the course.

Diamond King, one mile, 2.20.

Spring Chicken and Red Herring, one mile, 34, 1.10, 1.45, 2.21.

Cordite, one mile, 35, 1.10, 1.46, 2.19.

Old Boy, one mile, 2.19, last quarter 32.

Speculation, three-quarters of a mile, 1.45, last quarter 32.

THE "KINGS" IN TRAINING.

In my notes which appeared in last evening's Telegraph, I mentioned that the well-known Shanghai jockeys—Burkill and Hayes—were expected by the P.M.S.S. Korea. These gentlemen arrived here this morning, but as yet they have not had the chance of getting in the pigskin.

Shortly before eleven o'clock this forenoon, quite a few of Mr. Geo Potts' bunch were "powd." The exponents of the Rialto have the upper-hand in matters racing this meeting, and naturally a few sportsmen appeared at the rails when it became known that the "Kings" would be sent out to do useful work to-day.

The strong and cold wind that blew with so much force earlier in the morning kept up throughout the forenoon, but the sun managed to peep out, and rendered the atmospheric condition not so uncomfortable as it was a few hours previously.

The first pony to take the track was Sycee King. He is a very good looking and shapely pony, but does not appear to be a long distance stayer. He galloped a mile and a half in 37, 1.13, 1.46, 2.22, 3.00 3/5.

Following Sycee was Erl King. He was sent over a three-quarters of a mile distance. He commenced well and kept it up till the football stand was negotiated and "died away" at the Black Rock, finishing badly. His time was 40, 1.15, 1.51. A fancy half-a-mile would be his tether.

Emerald King came out next, looking quite fit and was placed over a mile and three-quarters gallop. He covered that distance well in 38, 1.18, 1.55, 2.30, 3.04, 3.40, 4.15.

Gold King was the next on the roll. He is a peculiar looking animal, and I think still too much on the big side. He was put on the same distance, his time being 40, 1.19, 1.55, 2.32, 3.07, 3.44, 4.19. Maori King joined him in the last mile and they kept together until the village was reached, when Maori romped home, leading by about five lengths. His mile was done in 2.17, last quarter 33.

The last on the list was Exchange King and Gipsy King. They went together for a mile and a quarter. The ponies galloped in a fine style, but Gipsy King fell out coming up the straight. Exchange King coming home leading by about three lengths. The time was 47, 1.23, 2.07, 2.37, 3.09, last quarter 33.

THE RINGING BOY.

THE "HONGKONG MAR"

REUNION GIVEN BY CAPTAIN BEN.

Once again the Hongkong Mar, of the Klen Kaisha, has resumed her trips to Hongkong and San Francisco, and to many occasions Captain E. Ben, the coming, gave a happy and entirely delightful run on board this afternoon. It was supposed to be an informal tiffin, but the genial skipper of the excellent company of his staff made even a function which falls too rarely to lot of the journalist. There was a wild choppy sea running as Mr. T. Matada shelled the newspaper guests on Blake, but the journey was safely accomplished, some of the passengers were splashed by unruly waves. An excellent tiffin was served might have been expected. Reminiscence past-trips were recalled, and the history of Hongkong Mar as a scout in the Japanese navy was sketched by Captain Ben. There are no shot or shell marks on the Hong Mar; sufficient that she captured near dozen colliers and kept an eye on Vladivostok long did the gallant skipper detain guests that when they reached terra again there was no time left for a desert of the vessel as she now looks after her perennials, but these will be reserved for tomorrow, when there will be no surging jagged launches to interfere with journal duties.

ST. JOHN'S CATHEDRAL.

SEAT-HOLDERS' MEETING.

In St. Andrew's Hall, City Hall, last evening, as announced, the annual meeting took place of the seat-holders and church body of St. John's Cathedral, the Rev. F. T. Johnson presiding, and opening the proceedings with prayer. There was but a very small sprinkling of church members present, as it was anticipated that there would be more if the usual routine business to be transacted such proved to be the case. The minutes of the last annual meeting having been read and confirmed, the accounts for the year 1905, on the motion of Mr. R. H. Craig, were acceded by Mr. W. Armstrong, p.a. and adopted.

Mr. J. Whittall, Hon. Treasurer, then called upon to review briefly the financial position of the church, the accounts which were in everybody's hands, showing the year closed with a balance of $450 than that at the close of the last year, his view of the necessary special, and not all, expenditure entailed during the past could not be considered other than satisfactory.

In calling attention to these extra expenses during the coming year, one reason the Rev. F. T. Johnson, who was proceeding on leave to England, and salary of a locum tenens must be provided for another there was also the half salary of a chaplain for the new church at noon in the provided. There had been no loss in the revenue during the past year, but one or none was anticipated this year.

There being nothing further to add, one having any questions to ask, the meeting of the church body for the ensuing year was proceeded with, when the retiring body were re-elected, viz: His Lordship, Bishop of Victoria, the Senior Chaplain (the Rev. F. T. Johnson), Hon. Captain Barnes-Lawrence, Mr. W. Armstrong, Mr. E. W. Slade, Hon. Dr. F. W. Clark, Mr. A. Beyer, Hon. Secretary, and Mr. J. Whittall, Hon. Treasurer, Mr. J. C. Peter being re-elected auditor.

This concluding the actual business before the meeting, the Rev. F. T. Johnson said he wished to propose votes of thanks to all who had in any way been connected with the work and affairs of the Cathedral, for their services and the assistance they had at all times been ready to give. The accounts, he said, might, taken as a whole, be considered satisfactory, and he referred to the extra expenses to be provided for in the coming year, to which Mr. Whittall had referred. As regards the slight falling off in the ordinary collections, that was due to the departure from the Colony of several very regular and generous subscribers to the Cathedral funds, as well as probably to the present high rate of exchange, which no doubt had its effect on the accounts to be offered, in view of the enhanced value of the dollar. The reverend speaker then in feeling terms referred to the lamented deaths of the late organist of the Cathedral, Mr. A. G. Ward, and of Mr. H. White, who was for ten years prior to his resignation, organist of the Cathedral. Mr. Ward, had been over eight and a half years in charge of the organ of the Cathedral, and was a most popular man in a wide circle of friends, and very shortly a memorial tablet would be erected in the Cathedral to his memory. Mr. Johnson then, in conclusion, moved that very cordial votes of thanks be extended to the clergy who had during the past year so kindly assisted in the services of the Cathedral, especially to the Rev. Mr. Jenkins, whose services had been much in request, as well as to the members of the church body, the Hon. Secretary, Mr. A. Beyer, the Hon. Treasurer, Mr. J. Whittall, Mr. Donnan Fuller, organist, Mr. Peter, auditor, and to Mr. Chapman, who so kindly presided at the organ during the period between the departure of the late Mr. A. G. Ward for Shanghai, and the arrival of Mr. Donnan Fuller, the new organist.

His Excellency the Governor, Sir John Anderson, has officially announced that the Government had decided to fix the exchange value of the dollar at two shillings and four pence.

The Discontent of Russia.

Peking, 22nd January.

A Russian Minister has protested against the China-Japan Treaty, on the ground that the proclamation of the opening of Harbin to foreign trade is a menace to Russia's commercial interests.

Mr. Pokotiloff also protests that China's intention to cancel the concession given to the Russo-Chinese Corporation undertaking the rubber business in Kiam and Heilungkiang provinces, on the plea that the term has expired, is unjust, in view of the fact that China has allowed Japan to cut timber in the forests along the Yalu as a joint enterprise of China and Japan.

Mr. Pokotiloff insists that China must allow Russia to build a branch railway to Heilungkiang, since China has given Japan the right to build a branch line to Antungkiang.

"NANSHAN" ADRIFT.

A COLLISION NARROWLY AVERTED.

While a strong breeze was blowing across the harbour this morning, the steamship Nanshan, which was lying off West Point, slipped her cable and went adrift. The Nanshan was moored to a buoy, and some distance off the Shahjehan was lying at anchor. When the former went adrift she was carried by wind and tide in the direction of the Shahjehan, and a collision seemed imminent. Fortunately the crew of the Nanshan were on the alert, and managed to get the anchor overboard before coming into contact with the Shahjehan, but it was a narrow escape, and created considerable excitement among those who witnessed from the shore the uncontrolled movements of the vessel.

WAS IT A BLOW?

AN INDIAN'S PLEA FOR SUIT.

In Summary Jurisdiction this afternoon, His Honour Mr. A. G. Wise, P. J. Judge, presiding, Kamar Din, of Elgin Road, Kowloon, sued C. E. Borton, of the officer's mess, 129th (D.C.O.) Baluch Regiment, for the recovery of the sum of $185, being as to $135, nine months' wages due from defendant to plaintiff, and as to $50 the amount due for plaintiff's return passage to Karachi, India, at which place he was engaged.

Mr. R. J. Gardiner, of the office of Mr. O. D. Thomson, appeared for the plaintiff, the defendant appearing in person.

Plaintiff stated that he was engaged by defendant in India as a scribe, and two years ago he came with the defendant to Hongkong under an agreement that he should get $12 wages and $5 for rations and clothing per month. He came to Hongkong, and for nine months he had not been paid, and he had subsisted on four sovereigns that he had brought with him. When he asked for his money he was put off and finally struck. He did not bring a charge of assault because he was afraid to do that.

Defendant said he was a lieutenant in the 129th Baluch. Plaintiff had been a scribe in the 127th, and about three years ago he came to defendant and said he could not get any work, and asked defendant if he could give him work. Defendant took him on and appointed him his scribe. He brought him to Hongkong. In India he paid him 20 rupees, and said that when he got to China, he would find out what was the custom here and pay him accordingly. He had paid the man up to the 7th inst. and his private accounts would show it. On the 8th inst. a Sunday, plaintiff came and asked defendant to check over his clothes and he did so the same day, but had a lot of trouble in getting all the clothes from him. Plaintiff said he could not live on $20, and the other saibis paid $35 a month, and mentioned Lieut. Usher's case. When defendant asked Lieut. Usher he said it was all a lie.

Cross-examined by Mr. Gardiner, witness said it was quite true that he had had some debts in India, but no bad ones and had paid them off. He had borrowed 1,000 rupees from Messrs. Girdlay, Groom and Co. to cover his expenses on going up for his examination, but had paid that off. He had some debts here—nothing more than the usual subaltern's debts. He had paid plaintiff regularly and did not know why he brought the suit.

His Honour: Ask the plaintiff.
Plaintiff: I had nothing to eat.
His Honour: Just so, but who told you to bring this suit? There is someone at the back of it.

Plaintiff: No one told me; he owes me money.
Defendant: He's a liar, sir. He owes me money. He kept £2 of mine in Singapore on the way from India, and when I asked him about it, he said he had changed it and was $5 short. He's a badman.
His Honour: I'd like to get to the bottom of his reason for bringing this suit, but it's no use trying. Of course you cannot get costs, but there will be judgment for defendant.

CANTON TROUBLES.

MR. LAI STILL IN PRISON.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

Canton, 27th January.
The gentry and leading merchants fully realize the seriousness of the situation. The difference is of such a serious nature that victory for the Viceroy means oppression for the people. One merchant said to me to-day, "We do not object so much to the tax. But the Viceroy should not take to himself the power of the Emperor. He should not treat us as children." Another rich merchant said, "If we were sure the taxes would be used in building the railway we would pay the tax. But the Viceroy cannot build the railway and run it. Let America build it and run it for twenty-five years and we will buy it back." From the opinion of many responsible and rich merchants I have gathered the impression that it is distrust of the Viceroy and dislike of his methods rather than any desire to avoid additional taxation that has caused the trouble.

The arrest of Mr. Lai was especially resented because of his high office and from the fact that he was not degraded before his arrest. To arrest an official and treat him as a common criminal is bitterly resented by the gentry. Up to the present Mr. Lai remains in the guard-house and refuses to leave it.

HOCKEY.

"ANDROMEDA" vs. "HECLA."

On the Hongkong Hockey Club ground at Happy Valley yesterday the officers from the ships above mentioned played a friendly game. Even play prevailed in the first half, the score at half-time being one all. In the second half the Andromeda could not be pulled up and won by three goals to one. The Hecla played with ten men only. Result: Andromeda 3; Hecla 1.

THE "CAO BANG."

AWAITING THE SALVAGE SYNDICATE'S ESTIMATE.

It will be remembered that when the salvage party which was sent to inspect the stranded steamer Cao Bang at Pulo Canton, and report as to the possibility of saving the vessel, returned to Hongkong, they expressed themselves strongly of the belief that successful salvage operations could be carried out. On the return journey the engineers drew up estimates of the cost of refloating the Cao Bang and they came to the conclusion that the operations would involve an expenditure of £80,000, which would include repairs and refitting the vessel for sea. That report was presented to the Hongkong Salvage Syndicate and there the matter rests. It is understood that the members of the Syndicate have been considering the question of offering to undertake the saving of the steamer, but they have not fixed upon the final estimated cost. To begin with, it is believed that a month's work is necessary before the Cao Bang can be made ready to take the water again. The leaks have to be patched up and the machinery removed. On the 14th of March there is a spring tide and if any attempt is to be made to save the vessel from becoming a total wreck it must be made then. That would mean that operations on the ship must commence not later than the 14th of February. Mr. de Champeaux, the Hongkong Agent for the Messageries Maritimes Company, states that he is only waiting to receive an offer from the Salvage Syndicate to undertake the refloating of the Cao Bang. When that offer is made, and the estimated cost known, it will be telegraphed to Paris for instructions as to whether the attempt will be made to save the ship or whether she will be allowed to be on the rocks until crushed to pieces by the waves against the coral reefs. At all events a final decision one way or the other must be arrived at before the middle of next month.

PRINCE ARTHUR'S VISIT TO JAPAN.

TODAY AND KUROKI TO BE IN ATTENDANCE.

The Emperor of Japan has given instructions, we learn from a Japanese contemporary, that the following Japanese officers and officials shall be in attendance on Prince Arthur of Connaught during his visit—General Kuroki, Admiral Togo, Vice-Admiral Ishino, Major-General Fukushima, Colonel Utsunomiya, Naval Captain Zaibei, Mr. Nagasaki (of the Imperial Household Department) and Masters of Ceremony Watanabe and Asano. Some of the Japanese papers report that Japan will dispatch a squadron to Great Britain in April, or May, to return thanks for the visit of Prince Arthur of Connaught. There is no definite information at present.

THE LIBA-CHAU TRAGEDY.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

Writing to the Manila Caballero under date Jan. 24, Father S. B. Rosier and L. B. Hillis, of the American Presbyterian Church, say:—"The matter is now so far understood as a historic fact that it stands eagerly ready to take its place in the magnificent series of the events of the Kingdom of Christ. Those of us who have a special and vital connection with the true men and women massacred at Liba-chauf feel as though something more than newspaper notices should be given to them. In a good and true sense they suffered and died for us, for the cause of Christ in the Orient and for the welfare of all people in these Eastern lands. It is our intention to hold a memorial service in the First Presbyterian church, Manila, Sunday evening, January 29, 1906, and you and your staff are cordially invited to attend this service. A brief and truthful statement will be made of the whole occurrence and some sketch of the personality of the martyred missionaries given and a brief consideration of the question 'Do Foreign Missions Pay?'"

SHIPPING NEWS.

THE "MIKASA."

The Asahi states that the pumping out of the Mikasa was commenced on the 16th, but had to be discontinued owing to the discovery of further damage sustained by the vessel.

COLLISION AT MOJI.

A Moji telegram to the Mainichi states that a collision took place there on the afternoon of the 19th between the American steamer Fleda and the Doyo Maru. A large crack was made in the bows of the Doyo Maru, while the American steamer sustained an indentation of about 3 feet in diameter at her stern.

STEAMER THIEVES.

The police at Marseilles arrested, last month, on board the steamer Egypt, two men alleged to be British subjects who are alleged to have made a specialty of robbing British passengers who were going to or returning from India and the Far East, by means of borrowing money from them on some pretext or other.

VLADIVOSTOK OPEN TO SHIPPING.

The Kobe Chamber of Commerce received the following message from the Foreign Department on the 17th:—Steamers are now able to enter Vladivostok throughout the winter. They should steer a course to the north-west in the direction of the lighthouse on Askold Island. Pilots are stationed at Maehik Bay, to the south-west of the above-mentioned island.

ISLANDS PORT SAID.

An advertisement appearing in a San Francisco paper offers for sale Fanning and Washington Islands, in the South Pacific, under instructions of the registrar of the British High Commissioners' Court for the Western Pacific. Fanning Island is well-known. It used to be a port of call for the Oceanic steamships plying between San Francisco and the Australian ports, and the Canadian Pacific steamships now stop there on their way up to the Colonies.

HILL MINERS AND HONOLULU.

It has been decided that the Hill miners will not call at Honolulu on their return trip from the Orient. The question has been under consideration for some months, and it is now stated that to call at Honolulu would necessitate steaming from the northern to the southern route and would add two or three days' extra time to the Seattle route. One of the principal advantages of the Seattle route is that it is the most direct line to Oriental ports and that the steaming time is shorter than to San Francisco. This advantage would be thrown away if Honolulu were made a port of call.

ADVENTURE OF AN O.S. K. STEAMER.

The O.S. K. Kelung Maru (1,350 tons), engaged on the Osaka-Tsien line, which entered the Mitsui Bishi floating dock at Kobe for repairs on the 11th inst., had a curious adventure the other day. The principal repairs having been effected, the vessel had left the dock on the 17th, and had since been moored to the buoy off Wada Point. Owing to the gale which blew on the night of the 19th inst. the cable parted at about 2.30 a.m. on the following day, and the engines could not be used on account of the repairs, the vessel drifted out of the harbour to the south-eastward, and eventually went ashore some six hours later at the mouth of the Kitsu-gawa, Osaka.

A rather serious incident happened on Wednesday on torpedo-boat No. 29, now thrown open to public inspection at Ishikawajima, in Tokyo Bay. It appears that when a number of spectators were on board the vessel, a quick-firing gun was accidentally fired. The shell flew in the direction of Yokohama, and after piercing the roofs and walls of four Japanese houses, finally dropped in the yard of the fifth house. The tremendous noise made by the shell as it struck the houses caused consternation among the dwellers in the neighbourhood, but happily no casualties occurred. It is reported that the naval officer in charge of the quick-firing gun was quite ignorant of its being loaded.

THE DRY DOCK "DEWEY."

Annapolis (Md.), December 28.

The gigantic dry dock, Dewey, made an auspicious start this afternoon on its 14,000 mile journey to the Philippines under the direction of Commander H. H. Hosley, United States Navy. The start was made at 2.05 o'clock, and at 6 o'clock the lights on the dock could be seen at a distance of eight or nine miles below Solomon's island, the starting point. There was no mishap of any kind.

Three vessels in tandem are towing the Dewey. Next to the dock is the collier Brutus, then the collier Cassius, and in front is the tug Polomac. Commander Hosley will have his quarters on the Glacier, the supply boat, which will accompany the dock. The huge towline was dropped over from the Dewey at 11.33 o'clock this morning, taken aboard the Brutus and made fast at noon. Chief Boatswain Philip Mullen, United States Navy, had control of securing all the towing apparatus, the whole affair being under the control of the signals of Commander Hosley from the Glacier.

For the next two or three months the dry dock will be a subject of the deepest concern to the Navy Department and to every American sailor, until the safely drops the heavy load of the Dewey in the waters of Subi bay. Many naval officers say they are really very doubtful whether the trip can be made in safety. The Havana floating dock was towed down to that port from Scotland, but that voyage was short in comparison with that lying before the Dewey, and the perils of the way much fewer, with more chances to make safe harbours in case of bad weather and to enable the towboats to take on coal. The tow that most nearly approximates that of the Dewey in American history was that of the big double-turreted monitor Albatross, in 1867. She was then the very latest type of naval architecture, and was sent across the Atlantic and into the Mediterranean as a "show ship," to give the Europeans an idea of how far ahead of the Americans had got as a result of sea fighting in the Civil War. One of the officers, now a rear-admiral, who helped get the monitor back to this side of the world, tells an interesting story of the difficulties of that trip. The monitor could not carry enough coal to cross at full speed under her own steam, so she was loaded with coal boxes on the decks until the ship was almost awash, and started at a four-knot speed across the Atlantic. Between four and five knots is the calculated speed of the Dewey. The Navy owned at that time a big side-wheeler, the Atlanta, and the ship towed and steered the Albatross clear across the Atlantic. She took the course that will be followed by the Dewey in the reversed direction, going from Gibraltar to Cape Verde islands; across to the West India islands, up to the Bahamas and so on to Delaware bay. At Cape Verde the tow was met by a schooner sent out from this side laden with coal, and with this fresh supply the monitor was gotten across. Several times the towing lines broke, but there were no serious vicissitudes, and naval officers here are hoping that the Dewey with her four towboats will do as well. Estimates vary considerably as to the length of the cruise, but few place the time at less than three months.

AN INDIFFERENT DEFENDANT.

In Summary Jurisdiction this morning His Honour, Mr. A. G. Wise, P. J. Judge, presiding, the case of Mak Yuet Ting, of No. 9 Queen's Road, Central, against Chan Hon Kai, of the same place, for the recovery of the sum of $800, being the amount deposited by plaintiff with defendant, together with agreed interest, and which was adjudged from yesterday, as the defendant had not yet risen from his bed to attend the Court, was called on this morning. Mr. E. J. Grist, of Messrs. Wilkinson and Grist, appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. F. Paget Hett, of Messrs. Brutton, Hett and Goldring, for the defendant.

Mr. F. Paget Hett said if his friend could prove his case, he, Mr. Hett, need not trouble His Lordship very much. He might say at once that his client was not in Court, but he had received a note from him asking him to make what defence he could.

Mr. Grist called the plaintiff, who, with documents, proved the claim.

Mr. Hett said on that he had nothing to say.

His Honour: Then there must be judgment and costs for plaintiff.
